Heritage Bank & Trust Hosts Free Shred Day Event July 27 in Columbia

(July 15, 2019) — Heritage Bank & Trust, in partnership with Shred on the Run, will host a free Shred Day for the community on Saturday, July 27 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the Columbia Heritage Bank & Trust location, which is located at 217 South James Campbell Blvd.

“Hosting this free Shred Day allows us to show appreciation to our customers and the Maury County community,” says President and CEO Jim Robinson. “We hope that you will find time to bring your unwanted documents by and shred them in a safe and secure way.”

Shred on the Run will provide a secure and convenient way to make sure that identifying papers are properly discarded. The limit for boxes to shred is three per family. Heritage Bank & Trust will also provide bottles of water to those who attend.

“Along with our interest bearing checking accounts, Heritage Bank & Trust offers an identify theft protection service called Kasasa Protect,” says Robinson. “We will have a booth set up at the event so you can learn more about our product that provides around-the-clock monitoring for fraudulent activity.”

Heritage Bank & Trust is a community bank with locations in Columbia, Mount Pleasant and Lawrenceburg. As of March 2019, Heritage Bank & Trust had total assets nearing $170 million.
