Heritage Bank & Trust Announces Ornament Contest Winners

(December 24, 2019) — Heritage Bank & Trust held its second ornament contest for sixth graders in Maury and Lawrence Counties this year. Each of Heritage Bank & Trust's three locations had a first, second and third place winner. All of the ornaments that were submitted are hanging on the trees at the Lawrenceburg, Mount Pleasant and Columbia location lobby areas.

“We are a community bank and wanted to showcase our commitment to the communities we serve this holiday season,” says Heritage Bank & Trust President and CEO Jim Robinson. “We wanted our customers to see the sixth graders artwork in our lobby areas. We also wanted to be able to surprise the winners with a pizza party and prize money.”

The first place winner for each branch won $50 and pizza party for their class. Second place won $25 and third place won $15.

Mount Pleasant Middle School winners are Shelby Ryckman, first place; Layla Eddie, second place; and Marissa Antista, third place.

The main office second place winner is Gracie Lynn Harris. She is a sixth grader at Whitthorne Middle School. Emily is pictured with Heritage Bank & Trust Columbia Branch Manager Nita Lentz.

The main office third place winner is Shelby Helton. She attends Columbia Academy.

Congratulations to all of the participants and winners of the Heritage Bank & Trust Ornament Contest.

Heritage Bank & Trust is a community bank with locations in Columbia, Mount Pleasant and Lawrenceburg. As of September 2019, Heritage Bank & Trust had total assets nearing $181 million.
